

New Trends in Global Shipping Industry

27th Jun

People-Centric

Pushing Boundaries

Future-Focused

CEO Mr. Lars Kastrup

Trends in Shipping & Logistics

More frequent exceptional events are changing the way our industry works globally.

01.

Pandemic

Supply chain disruptions

Rise of e-commerce

Need for reliability

02.

Geopolitics

Trade dynamism & disruptions

Longer transit time

Equipment turnaround

03.

Climate Change

Decarbonization efforts

Net zero emission targets

Green shipping

NEW WORLD BALANCE

TECHNOLOGY

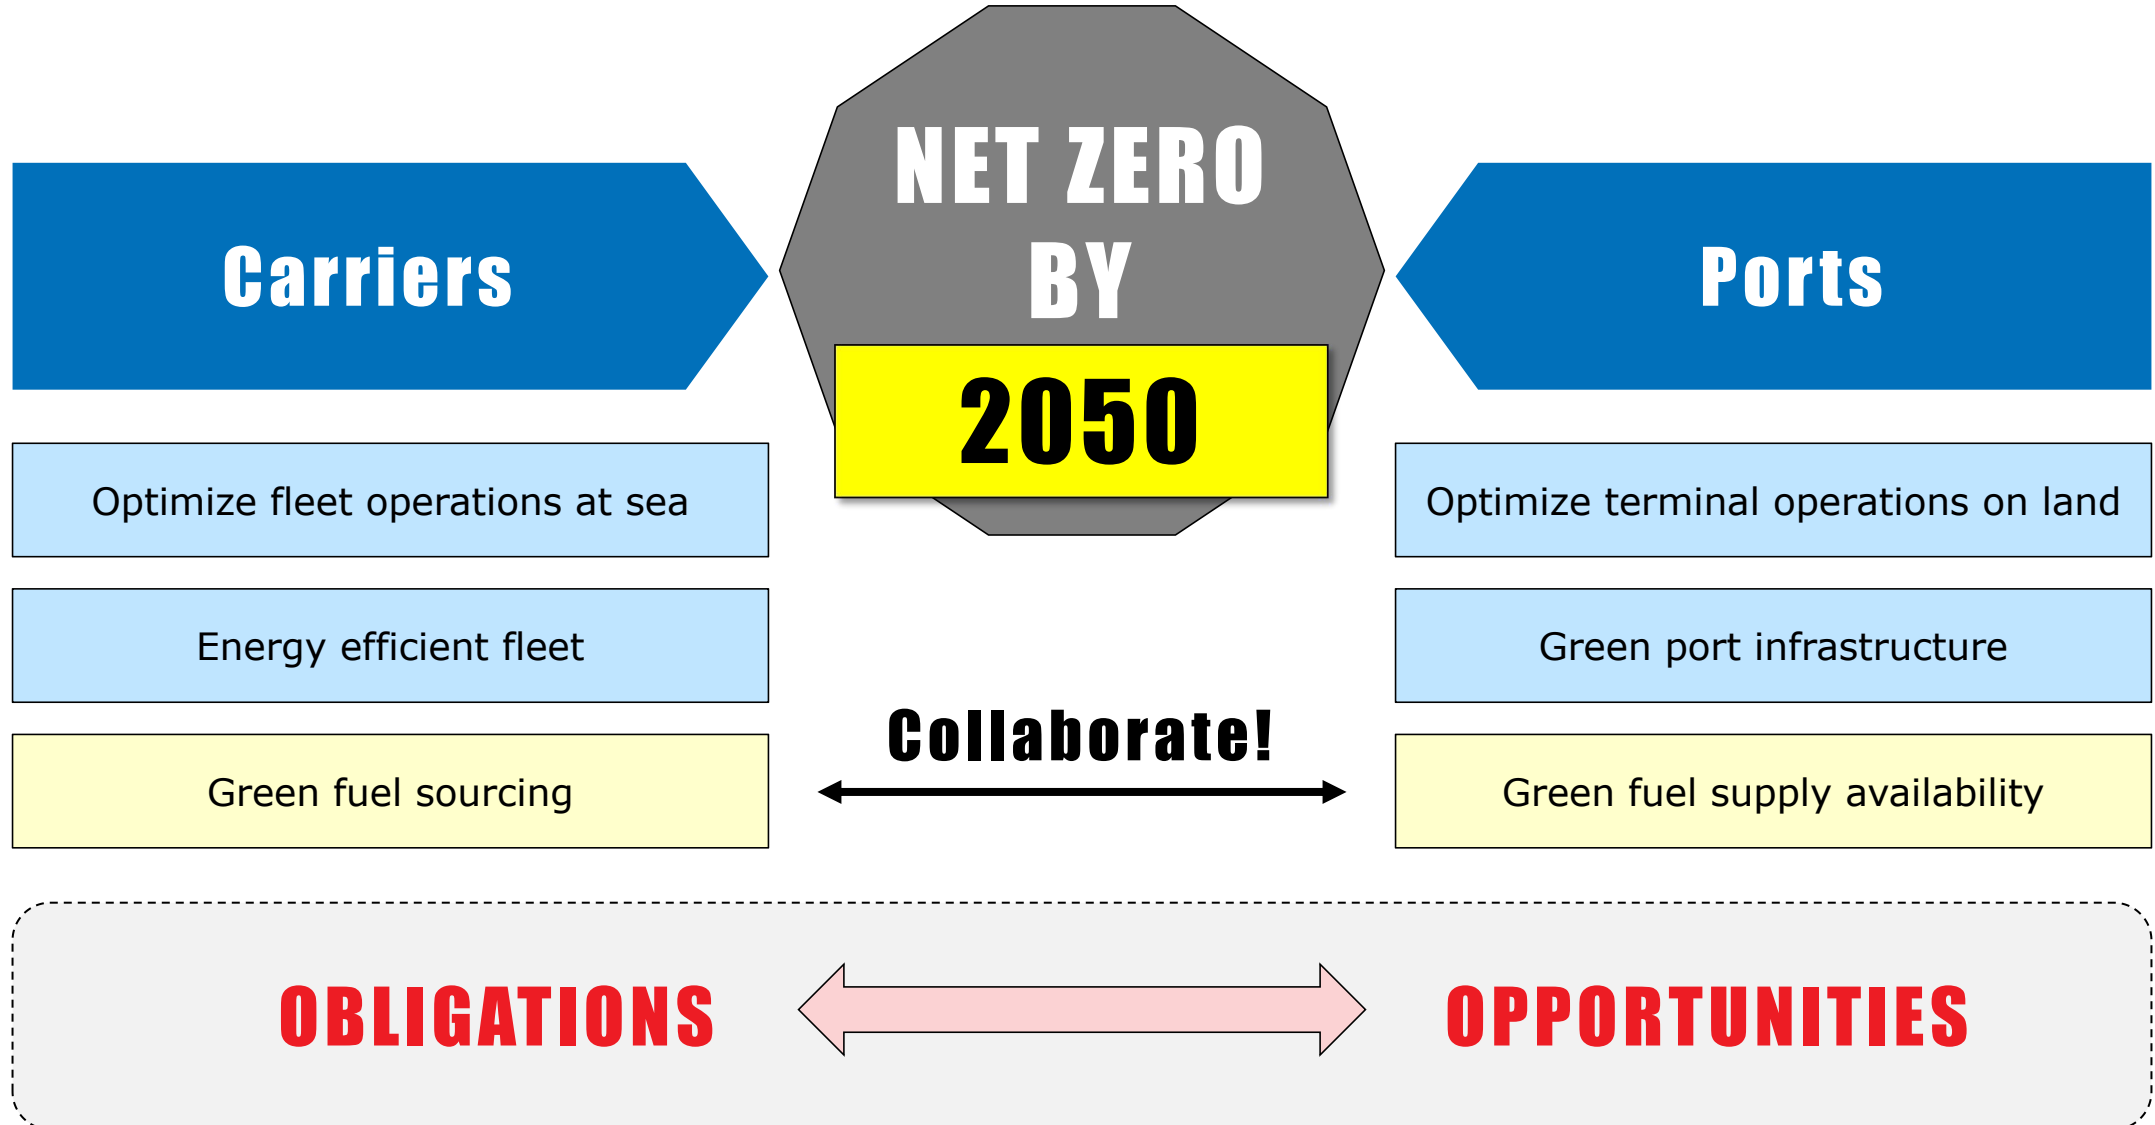

SUSTAINABILITY

Sustainability

Both carriers & ports play equally vital roles in contributing to green shipping.

Technology – Digitalization

Advancements in technology is accelerating our connectivity and efficiency drive.

01.

PIL's CME

Centre of Maritime Efficiency

Weather forecasting & route optimization

Fleet performance & carbon emission monitoring

02.

Paperless Transactions

PocketPIL self-service

eBL, eDO, eBDN

03.

Collaborations

GSBN initiative

DCSA (Digital Container Shipping Association)

System interoperability is key.
Need for industry to collaborate towards common standards.

Thank You

People-Centric

Pushing Boundaries

Future-Focused

